

Deanship has set a group of training programs aiming to elevate the level of professionalism of employees in Almajmaah University libraries. The followings are some of the training programs:

- Libraries system KOHA that is applied in all Almajmaah University libraries. 1. Branch system (Lending)
- Comprehensive training course for developing skills of employees in Almajmaah University libraries
- Workshop of Preparing employees in the university libraries for fighting information illiteracy. Information Literacy Training.
- A workshop of the digital library and how to manage it
- A course of International Mark Rules – Automatically readable catalog
- A workshop of Electronic Information Services
- A course of modern management of university libraries in the ear of information technology
- A course on institutions of digital information and how to utilize them
- Career loyalty
- Digital libraries: Establishing and Using
- Managing libraries websites on the internet
- A course in making clubs, groups, records, e-mails on the internet
- Search engines on the internet