

Location and Area:

The library is located in Faculty of Sciences and Humanities in Remah (men's campus) on the first ground. The area of it is approximately 200 square meters

Library sections:

Library management

Users' services

Electronic catalog

Library's properties

The library contains a linguistically and topically varied collection of information sources of a number of titles and approximately copies and volumes in general knowledge, humanities and sciences.

Library system:

The libraries and their catalogs are administered by KOHA system that is considered one of the modern systems in library management.

Library services:

Internal reading service

Automatic search in libraries catalogs

Reference services

Photocopying

Present awareness

Internet service

Communication means

E-mail: D1a@mu.edu.sa