Self Evaluation

- Evaluation your manuscript? What is the possibility to be accepted in an ISI journal? Scopus journal? Other?
- Evaluate the novelty? Is it clearly indicated in the abstract, introduction, conclusion?
- Is the manuscript well written? Well edited?
- Do you have a constraint of time? (Project, PhD, Promotion?)
- Can you afford to pay the publication fees? Open access or not?

Aim and scope of the Journal

- Aim and scope of the journal?

The principal reason of desk rejection

- Metrics (Impact factor and other indicators)
- Last accepted papers
- Geographic distribution of the accepted papers
- Number of papers accepted during the last years
- Duration of the evaluation process
- Editorial Board?

Browse, search, and explore journals indexed in the Web of Science

The Master Journal List is an invaluable tool to help you to find the right journal for your needs across multiple indices hosted on the Web of Science platform. Spanning all disciplines and regions, Web of Science Core Collection is at the heart of the Web of Science platform. Curated with care by an expert team of in-house editors, Web of Science Core Collection includes only journals that demonstrate high levels of editorial rigor and best practice. As well as the Web of Science Core Collection, you can search across the following specialty collections: Biological Abstracts, BIOSIS Previews, Zoological Record, and Current Contents Connect, as well as the Chemical Information products.

Conclusion

- To find the best journal for your work is not an easy task
- The aim and scope of the journal is an important criteria to avoid desk rejection.
- Many intelligent systems may help you in this task.
- For examples:
  - Elsevier                      Elsevier Journal Finder
  - Springer                      Springer Journal Suggester
  - Wiley                          Wiley Journal Finder
  - Taylor & Francis              Journal Suggester
  - IEEE                              IEEE Publication Recommender
- Be careful to avoid to trapped by predatory journals.
