

His Excellency Vice President for Academic Affairs Opens a Symposium and an Accompanying exhibition on "Drugs and Their Impact on Individuals and Society" in Faculty of Science, Alzulfi

His Excellency Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Mohammed Abdullah Al Shaya opened a symposium that was held by Faculty of Sciences in Alzulfi and the accompanying exhibition entitled "

Drugs and Their Impact on Individuals and Society" on Saturday 25/12/1433. His speech contained some warnings about the disadvantages and risks of using drugs. He also stressed on the importance of avoiding use of narcotics, and the extremely bad consequences of using drugs.