

The Zulfi college of Education has organized “the Readers Club”

The Zulfi College of Education, presented by the secretariat of female students’ activities, has organized the first of “The Readers Club” events on Thursday, 6-1-1436 AH which has been about open extracurricular reading in various fields and arts. The club aims to incite the students of the college and other universities, as well as the community to read. The events associated with the club included the display of borrowed books from “Reading for Everyone” project and books and publications that encourage reading.
