

TV channel holds the responsibility for the production and filming of scientific and educational programs and other events that the university provides. Also, it provide a television network to transfer lectures between faculty members and students in all colleges of the university.