

The Visit of Majmaah University Delegation to King Saud University

The College of Science and Humanities, Ghat participated in the visit of Majmaah University delegation to King Saud University which was organized by the Students' Affairs Deanship. About 17 students from different colleges participated in that visit. Five of them are from College of Science and Humanities, Ghat.

Skills of Academic Excellence

The College of Sciences and Humanities, Ghat organized a course on the skills of academic excellence on Tuesday, 11.01.1433. The course was two of training from (10-12) p.m., the course session was attended by more than fifty students. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Ahmed Faiz Zoubi, which focused on the secrets of academic excellence at all levels of the school and extra-curricular activities through self-enthusiasm and choosing friends carefully, and trusting their own capabilities and other skills.

Entrepreneurship Strategy and Private Investment

On Tuesday 01/18/1433 AH. Workshop was held entitled "Strategy Entrepreneurship and private investment" under the supervision of Professor Ms. Fatima Latif and female students third level from the department of Management Systems participated in the workshop. Through this workshop students were encouraged to make several special projects and how feasibility studies and building of a special project.